

ELIGIBILITY RULES FOR NACC SINGLES CHART

Below are the guidelines for songs to qualify for the NACC Singles Chart. Singles need to meet the following criteria as laid out on Amazon.com's digital music platform. (See illustrations)

- A single is stand-alone (not currently associated or will never be associated with an album).
For example. St. Vincent's "Fast Slow Disco"

The screenshot shows search results for 'st. vincent' on Amazon Music. It includes sections for Albums and Playlists. A table of songs is displayed below, with a red arrow pointing to the 'Fast Slow Disco' entry.

Song Title	Artist	Album	Time
Los Angeles	St. Vincent	Masseduction (Explicit)	4:41
New York (Explicit)	St. Vincent	Masseduction (Explicit)	2:35
Fast Slow Disco	St. Vincent	Fast Slow Disco	3:17
Masseduction	St. Vincent	Masseduction (Explicit)	3:17
Digital Witness	St. Vincent	St. Vincent	3:22
Hang On Me	St. Vincent	Masseduction (Explicit)	2:48
Cruel	St. Vincent	Strange Mercy	3:35

- A single is the first song made available from a yet-to-be released album. As long as it remains the only song from the album available for play it can remain eligible to chart @ NACC Singles.
For example, the Devotchka single "Straight Shot" (the only single available from the forthcoming "This Night Falls Forever" LP).

As soon as more than one song is available for play from an album that is not out yet and that album title has been announced and the songs, when searched for on Amazon, are shown as coming from a parent album, they will be deemed ineligible to chart on the NACC Singles Chart. They will then be bundled as [Advance Tracks] and will count together toward NACC 200 airplay/charting moving forward.

For example, Interpol's upcoming Marauder LP (which has two songs available for play):

No songs from any album that has been released are eligible to chart on the NACC Singles Chart.

Also, two singles released the same day (i.e. Jungle's "Happy Man/House In L.A." or bundled together, i.e. GBV's "You Own The Night/Your Cricket Is Rather Unique") are eligible to be combined and listed together.

Singles released at separate times (whether they are stand-alone or anticipated to be included on the same yet-to-be released album) can be listed and chart separately until the album and/or album name is announced.
